R. & Regs. 183-1-12-.02(7)(a); Ga. Comp. R. & Regs. 590-8-1-.01(a)(3). For illustrative case law, Coalition Plaintiffs point to what is cited and discussed in their opposition to Defendants’ motion to dismiss, the briefing on their two motions for preliminary injunction, and their opposition to State Defendants’ appeal to the Eleventh Circuit as well as to the orders of the District Court and the Eleventh Circuit on the corresponding motions and appeal.

3. Provide the name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information that you may use to support your claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment, identifying the subjects of the information. (Attach document list and descriptions to Initial Disclosures as Attachment C.).

Coalition Plaintiffs have not yet completed their investigation of the facts underlying this lawsuit and discovery has just begun. Therefore, Coalition Plaintiffs' disclosures are based solely on the information reasonably available at the present time and are submitted without prejudice to Coalition Plaintiffs' right to supplement this disclosure and present additional evidence in any filing or proceeding, including but not limited to trial. Coalition Plaintiffs reserve the right to disclose additional information or to supplement these disclosures as newly-discovered information becomes

6. In the space provided below, provide a computation of any category of damages claimed by you. In addition, include a copy of, or describe by category and location of, the documents or other evidentiary material, not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of injuries suffered, making such documents or evidentiary material available for inspection and copying as under Fed.R.Civ.P. 34. (Attach any copies and descriptions to Initial Disclosures as Attachment D.).

Coalition Plaintiffs seek no monetary damages, but reserve the right to seek fees and costs, which will be calculated at the appropriate time based on work performed as of that time.

7. Attach for inspection and copying as under Fed.R.Civ.P. 34 any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in this action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.
